THE CHRONICLE'S CIRCULATION.

1,327.

We place these figures, which represent our actual circulation, at the head of this column as a standing advertisement to subscribers and advertisers. Will the other Clarksville papers do the same? We invite advertisers to examine our subscription books at any and all times.

THE ladies of the Episcopal church would be pleased to see the public at Rectory next Wednesday evening, Dec. 8th. A Mikado tea served by our young ladies will be the feature of the evening. Fresh oysters served in tempting style.

WE notice a beautiful display of perfumes and toilet soap at Owen & Moore's, they can please you, call and see them. 5t.

OUR columns this week contain a variety of reading matter, original, contributed and selected, some of which, we hope, may find favor in the eyes of our readers.

Christmas Presents.

Beautiful cut glass toilet bottles. Fine odor cases elegant plush cutlery cases, for ladies. Pocket knives and razor sets at drug store. OWEN & MOORE. 5t.

THE new tobacco crop is coming in on the I. A. & T. railroad, and this week the road brought in fifteen or twenty car loads of wheat from Christian County.

IT is wise to provide against emergencies which are liable to arise in every family. In sudden attacks of cold, croup, asthma, etc., a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will prove a never failing remedy.

FLAVORING extracts, gelatin, baking powders, soda, cream tartar green and black tea. All of the best quality at Owen and Moore's. 5t.

LAST Friday Mr. Sam Grigsby Sheriff of Dickson County, brought the negro Jesse Mockabee, charged with selling whiskey without license, and placed him in jail. He will be tried during this criminal court.

THE Clarksville Tobacco Board of Trade will be permanently resumed on Tuesday, December 7th, and will continue hereafter from week to week. This is right, the market should be always open.

THE ladies of Clarksville will give an entertainment for the benefit of the town Y. M. C. A., on Tuesday of Christmas week (Dec. 21st.) During the day a lunch will be served, and at night a fair will be held for the sale of cakes and fancy articles.

A good selection of watches, clocks, and jewelry at Rohners. 1t.

THE steady increase of our list of subscribers is the best possible proof that our paper is growing in interest. The figures at the head of the column speak for themselves and advertisers will take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

THE CHRONICLE will furnish you good reading for the long winter nights. Its entertaining stories, its current news columns, its local items and communications are all interesting.

MR. J. F. BELL, the shoe man on Franklin street, assures his friends and the general public that he has now on hand the finest assortment of goods ever presented in Clarksville. He solicits a generous trade and is prepared to supply every demand. He is, as his advertisement this week announces, "Coming to the Front."

ONE of our native poets thus launches into song:

Hope brightly shines through disappointment's mist,
And lends us courage bravely to persist.
We call on two small doves, with a sigh,
And hope that he's been blundering with a high.

THE Presbyterian Sunday school in this city has more than two hundred members. D. N. Kennedy is superintendent, Thos. L. Harvie is Secretary. There are twenty teachers, all prompt and attentive to their duties. The music is under the charge of Dr. G. F. Nicholas. The contributions are liberal and the school is in a flourishing condition.

BAILEY MAXEY, son of A. B. Maxey, aged nine years, died at his home on College street in this city on Thursday morning, and was buried in the City Cemetery yesterday. Bailey was a boy of unusual intelligence and had many friends among both the old and young.

THE contributions in this issue of the CHRONICLE are from some of the best writers in our city, and we are confident they will be read with pleasure. We will be pardoned for calling special attention to the communication headed "People who Talk," because it is well written, properly punctuated, divided into paragraphs and its quaint but kindly expressions may make some of them think, but will hurt no one's feelings. Such contributions are welcomed by the editor and their well written lines give joy to the printer's heart.

Fine Work.

THE CHRONICLE Job Office has this week sent out the finest job of pamphlet work ever executed in Tennessee. It consists of 2,000 Catalogues with lithograph covers, and its 44 pages filled with the finest cuts illustrating the Greenhouse and Bedding plants of the Dixie Nursery of H. H. Sanford & Co., Thomasville, Georgia.

THE show beautifully the Leconte Pear, the Kelsey Plum, Quinces and the large Japanese Jersimmons, together with Strawberries, Grapes and other small fruits, and then follows an almost endless variety of Evergreens, Chrysanthemums, Roses, Verbenas, Violets and Basket plants. The work was done by Mr Titus and his assistants, and our city as well as the CHRONICLE Office is to be congratulated on the compliment paid to us by Georgia men who have seen the CHRONICLE's work before.

Christmas Trees.

And all other gift entertainments, can get real bargains at our Bookstore in many goods that are not to be found elsewhere. OWEN MOORE & ATKINSON.

"THE Silver Spur," a Comedy in four acts by Scott Marble will be presented in Elder's Opera House on Wednesday night, 8th inst. It will be interspersed with songs, dances and banjo solos, and contains nothing to offend the most fastidious. It will be remembered that this excellent Company played here last January and made a most favorable impression on all who witnessed their performance. We bespeak for them a full house.

THE Indianapolis Journal gives the Company this flattering endorsement:

A good audience witnessed the first presentation in this city of the comedy-drama, "Silver Spur." It is a most interesting play with a plot full of complications; it is full of absorbing interest until the drop of the curtain. The unraveling of the mystery and distribution of justice is awaited by the auditors with curiosity aroused to the highest pitch. "Silver Spur" is a well-constructed play, abounding in strong and dramatic situations, well-balanced scenes and sparkling with genuine comedy. The lines are bright and clear. There are few plays that are perfect, and for a sourette play, "Silver Spur" has few faults, as the characterizations are well drawn, and the parts well balanced. The play was handsomely mounted and costumes and properties costly and many.

Standard Novels.

WE have them in sets very cheap Scott at $7.50, Dickens at $8.50, Irving at $7.50, Thackeray at $8.50, all others in proportion. OWEN MOORE & ATKINSON.

"THE Bank of California," the Story with which, we are glad to say, so many of our readers have been entertained, is concluded in this week's paper.

IN the CHRONICLE next Saturday, the 11th, we will begin the publication of a new and popular story, entitled "Little Tu'penny," by S. Baring Gould, which will be concluded in three numbers of the paper. This will bring us to the Christmas holidays.

IN our first paper in January 1887 we will begin the publication of a fascinating story by Wilkie Collins, entitled "My Lady's Money," illustrated. We are offering these attractions without additional cost to our friends, and we hope to receive a large addition to our list of new subscribers, beginning with the first number in January 1887.

R. D. MOSELEY will sell at public sale at McAllister's Cross Roads on Thursday the 7th of December, eight tracts of valuable land. Remember the date and be sure to attend. You can buy a tract of any size from ninety to 140 acres. Read his advertisement in this paper.

REV. D. A. BRIGHAM held a series of meetings in the Presbyterian church in this city last week, resulting in twenty conversions and fourteen additions to the church.

THE sale of fifty-eight acres of land, part of the Tandy property, and seven lots in New Providence by the Clark and Master last Monday, brought $2,801.

Card of Thanks.

On Thursday evening, November 25th, the students of the University were given an entertainment by the faculty, and on the following morning the students assembled in the chapel and calling James G. Patton to the chair, the following resolutions were adopted:

We the students of the University, having greatly enjoyed the reception of last Thursday evening, given by the ladies and gentlemen of the faculty and perceiving in it a marked expression of their regard and interest for us, both in the careful thoughtfulness and the plan and execution of the entertainment, desire hereby to show our appreciation of their kindness: therefore be it

Resolved, 1. That we express to the ladies and gentlemen of the faculty our true and heartfelt thanks for the pleasure of the evening, and assure them while we may with the carelessness characteristic of youth pass lightly over the entertainment of the evening without, perhaps, greatly manifesting a due appreciation, yet we very sensibly perceive the motives of love and affection which prompted the remembrance; and that in coming days we shall endeavor to render ourselves more worthy by a careful performance of all the duties incumbent upon us, and by that many decorum which characterizes all true gentlemen.

Resolved, 3. That we regret very much that Mrs. Waddell and Mrs. Wilson were unable to be present on account of ill health, thus detracting from our pleasure.

Resolved, 3. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Journal and each of the city papers for publication, and through that medium to the faculty.

Respectfully,

WILL M. ANDERSON,

CORRY W. TRAWICK,

R. Y. HICKS,

W. A. NISBET,

WM. EDWARDS,

D. J. BRIMM,

Jos. R. WILSON, JR.,

Committee.

SEVERAL articles of interest were crowded out this week among other some well written verses addressed to our home dramatic talent, which will appear in the next issue.

ADAMS, GILL & Co., are grading more ground and building more warehouse room for tobacco. They intend to furnish room for every hoghead of tobacco raised between Clarksville and Russellville, if we are to Judge by the spread of their buildings.

A SPECIAL term of the Criminal court begun on Thursday the 2nd inst.

NOTHING would please a young man's sweetheart more than one of those beautiful Bracelets at Cooke's. He has the handsomest line of holiday presents ever displayed in Clarksville. 1t.

ABOUT this season of the year is the best time to read the advertisements. All the merchants are reaching out for the Christmas trade and they invite you to call. There is no farmer so far from market as the one who has nothing to sell, and there is no merchant so far from a customer as the one who don't advertise. We throw in these suggestions in order to somewhat lighten the toll-gate and ferry fees of those who will now rush in to see our advertisers.

At the Court-House door on Saturday, (to-day) December 4th, N. Baxter, clerk of the Supreme Court will (in the case of J. J. Garrett vs. James Griffey et al.) sell 118½ acres of land in District No. 9. Don't fail to be there in time.

Puff and Chew.

Do you want a nice meerscham or briar root pipe, good smoking and chewing tobacco, good cigars or cigarettes go to OWEN & MOORE'S. 5t.

A great variety of spectacles and eye glasses of the best quality, and the most improved instrument to test the eye with at Rohners. 1t.

WE take pleasure in announcing that the Cantata "Jephtha's Daughter" will be presented to the public in Elder's Opera House on Tuesday night 14th inst., by a company of Clarksville amateurs which includes the best musical talent of the city. The chorus will be sung by about thirty of the company. Every lover of fine music should attend.

CHARLES A. BAILEY, the coal oil agent who several weeks ago got on the train to go from Clarksville to Guthrie has never been heard from since that day. Mr. William Litterer in the American of Thursday says:

From my intimate knowledge of the young man I feel confident future developments will thoroughly vindicate him, and until then let us not judge too hastily.

A WEDDING present of any kind can be found at Cooke's. Don't fail to examine his stock of Holiday goods before purchasing. 1t.

THE rehearsal of the Cantata Thursday night gives token of the success which will crown the efforts of the company next Tuesday night when they will appear in ancient Hebrew costumes.

—Mr. Polk Prince paid us a pleasant call Wednesday. He is still enjoying freedom, but who knows what a day may bring upon us. "Where was I lost, expect, the hare starts," said wise Sancho Panza.

—Mr. A. A. Johnson, representing, Crusman of this city, has just returned from West Tennessee and reports business booming in the cotton belt, and he had a good trade for his house. Thus Clarksville "widens."

—Capt. R. Y. Johnson and Mr. W. L. Poindexter called on us in our Sunbeam Thursday evening. To say they were welcome would hardly express it, and we pay them a compliment never paid to any but editors, when we say "they were looking well."

—Maj. Clark, of Madison county was visiting his old friends in this city Thursday, and found time to pay us a brief call. The Maj. is a candidate for Comptroller and if the office is given to West Tennessee we think his chances are better than those of any of his competitors, at all events, no better man can be elected.

THE question is often asked: "Where was Moses when the candle went out?" Now the question is, by George: "Where were we when the lamp went out?"

ATTENTION.

On account of the lateness of the season, and being overstocked, we have determined to sell from this date (December 1st) our entire select stock of Cloaks at Cost Prices.

This sale includes Fine Plush Sacques, Short Plush Wraps, Astrachan and Cloth Wraps and Jackets of every kind. Our of every description we will positively sell at cost and less than cost. Two hundred Jersey at cost and less than cost. Remember, we are always headquarters for Fine Millinery and Fancy Goods.

Respectfully,

MRS. ROSENFELD.

SINCE the new company has had control of the I. A. & T. railroad—about three months—they have brought into Clarksville 32,725 bushels of wheat.

This, of course, includes only the months in the latter part of the season for wheat delivery. The change to a standard gauge and the extension of the line will both be accomplished in time for the crop of 1887 and then the shipments will run up into several hundred thousand bushels.

NOTHING could be more expressive of the love of our people for Rev. P. A. Fitts than the request sent to him to come from his present home, Anniston, Ala., and officiate in the funeral services of our deceased friend [Maj. T. F. Henry. He came and performed the sad duty, and though called away again very soon the hearts of his many friends and admirers here will ever throb more warmly at mention of his name.

At the regular meeting of the Mayor and Aldermen Wednesday the Mayor appointed Aldermen Kleeman, Smith, Gibbert, Mar and Young a committee to investigate the proposition made by the Electric Light Company in regard to placing twenty-five arc lights of 2,000 candle power each, on the streets of the city.

Alderman Stacker, of the eight Ward tendered his resignation, and W. B. Anderson was elected to fill the vacancy. Mr. Anderson is a man of untiring energy, well posted in business affairs and will prove an able and zealous member of the Board.

THE Grange Warehouse Association declares a distribution of 25 cents on the capital stock, and announces the fact in this paper to-day.

DON'T fail to see the beautiful line of silverware, clocks, and jewelry, of all kinds and styles, suitable for the holiday presents, at Cooke's. 1t.

READ the special notices in this paper to-day and then go to Cooke's Jewelry Store and see for yourselves all the elegant goods.

Stop Thief! Stop Thief!

There is no use on earth for you to run the risk of the penitentiary. C. A. Gossett, on Franklin street, will sell you furniture of all kinds a great deal cheaper than you can steal it. Then there is no after trouble about it, either. 2t.

MRS. ROSENFELD invites public attention through an advertisement in this paper to the splendid stock of Cloaks, Wraps and Jackets of every kind suited to this cold weather. These goods are now being sold positively at cost.

MESSES. G. M. Bell and G. L. Pitt are now partners in the practice of law. They both possess the elements which insure success: studious attention to business and energy that never grows weary.

THIS debt statement issued Dec. 1st shows the decrease of the public debt during the month of November amounted to $3,052,49.57. Total cash in the Treasury, $439,023,740.50.

REV. D. A. BRIGHAM will be installed as pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church in this city at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.
